Announcements:

Summit Bible Club

Children may still recite their Summit Club verses to their parents and then let Rebekah know for her records.
Good job, kids!

Spring Crafter's Retreat

Cancelled this year.
Be sure to be watching for information about the Fall Crafter's Retreat in October.

Church Cancellations

All in-person services and activities have been put on hold until further notice due to the Governor's Health Mandates.

Please be checking your email and the church website for updated information and resources.

Sermons

You may view a live-streaming devotional via the church website each Sunday and Wednesday.

Please send along any prayer requests to Pastor or Rebekah to be added to the prayer chain and the Prayer Bulletin.

> "The cross liberates us from the fear of death and the need to live a lie. It acts as a powerful antidote to our natural tendency to be frightened or anxious about our situation in the world. It allows us to face death with a quiet and calm confidence, knowing that its sting has been drawn by the cross and victory given through the resurrection."
